

Dîner Escoffier

Soupe Queue de Boeuf & Escargot,
Pâtes fraîches Sedani et châtaignes

2006 Chateau Bel Air Perponcher 'Entre-deux mers', Despagne, Bordeaux, France

A wine that is appreciated for its lush purity, delicate flowery aroma, silky mouth and tidy, dry finish. One-third each Semillon, Sauvignon and Muscadelle. A very rich wine that smells of passion fruit and a youthful, grapey fruit character.

Langoustines,
Jus de volaille réduit & purée de pomme ratte
Sel de Noirmoutier

2004 Spätburgunder M QbA, Schneider, Pfalz, Germany

A modern version of a pinot Noir. Dark cherry fruit together with plum, cinnamon and a touch of chocolate. Full bodied and round with silky tannins and a chocolate finish.

Pains Bridor

2002 Tinto 'Tres Bagos' Douro DOC, Lavradores de Feitoria, Douro, Portugal

Made from 70-year old Touriga Nacional, Tinta Roriz, and Touriga Franca vines, this 2002 is an impressive effort. A beautiful bouquet of scorched earth, blackberries, licorice, and spice box is followed by a seriously endowed wine with an underlying distinct minerality, firm structure, deep ruby/purple color and admirable texture.

Tarte Sablée au Citron,
Sorbet aux cerises
Tuile à l'orange

2007 MR Mountain Wine, Telmo Rodriguez, Malaga, Spain

Inspired by wine writer Hugh Johnson's comment that one of the greatest wines he'd ever tried was from the mountains of Malaga, relentlessly-innovating winemaker Telmo Rodriguez went there in search of a high-altitude vineyard. Having secured a plot and planted it to Moscatel, he produced his first vintage in 1998. This sweet, succulent style has aromas of fresh mint and orange peel and an aromatic, grapey palate finishing on a note of dry honey.
